LIFE FOR LIFE.

The Vincennes Murderer Taken From Jail by a Mob and Swung From a Telegraph Pole.

Gossip From the State Capital in Regard to the Convention To-morrow --The Candidates.

Missouri Democracy--Presbyterians of the World--Buried Alive--Other Incidents and Accidents.

Mob Law at Vincennes.

VINCENNES, Ind., June 24.—At 12:30 o'clock last night a mob of about fifty people went to the jail and battered down the door with a rail taken from the track and took Oliver Canfield, who murdered Mrs. Mollie Gharlin some time ago, and hanged him to a telegraph pole. The body was left hanging until 5 o'clock this morning, when it was cut down by friends. The mob was quiet but determined. The sheriff was at the jail, but was overpowered and no resistance was made. The murder was an atrocious one, Canfield killing the woman from jealousy.

The Coming Ticket.

INDIANAPOLIS, June 24.—Nearly all the delegates and all the forces of the coming democratic state convention are now on the ground preparing for the contest. Last evening all the headquarters at the different hotels were thrown open and a lively scene was presented. Each candidate's rooms are filled with his friends and much lobbying is in progress.

The contest for the governorship gives promise of an early settlement unless new combinations or developments should be formed to-day. The three candidates, Col. J. P. Gray, of Randolph, Gen. M. D. Manson, of Montgomery, and Judge David Turpie, of Marion county, are all here, but it is generally conceded that Gray will win an easy victory, although Manson will develop considerable strength.

The contest for the lieutenant-governorship and reporter of the supreme court will be full of excitement, as there is a host of candidates, which may render it difficult to make a nomination. The names of Menzies, McDonald, Willard, Jewett and Lamb are the most frequently mentioned in connection with the second place on the ticket. Lewis Jordan, of this city, shed his castor into the ring this morning and became a full fledged candidate for the nomination, causing the only ripple of the day. Lamb's candidacy is not definitely announced.

Senator Voorhees is talked of as permanent chairman of the convention. Webster Dixon, of Columbus, ex-ward of the house, and a good reader, is named for principal secretary of the convention, the position for which Bernhamer is working.

James M. Cropsey, Frank Landers, Charley Bridges and Mr. New, of Hancock, want to get on the state central committee.

Congressman Manson will probably be chairman of the committee on resolutions.

The Missouri Democracy.

St. Louis, Mo., June 24.—The state democratic convention for the election of delegates-at-large to the national convention at Chicago and for naming district delegates, met at the Standard theater between 11 and 12 o'clock. The attendance is very large, all counties in the state being represented. John O. Day, chairman of the state central committee, called the convention to order and named Congressman M. L. Clardy temporary chairman, W. L. Fitzgerald, of St. Louis, temporary secretary, with assistants and a full line of officers.

On taking the chair Mr. Clardy made a brief address. He arraigned the republican platform and named the democratic candidates before the party. Tilden's name was greeted with loud applause. Thurman, Bayard and McDonald's names were also applauded, but the greatest demonstration was at the mention of Grover Cleveland. The usual business committees were named and a recess taken until 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The delegates to the convention from the various congressional districts held meetings this morning prior to calling the convention to order and elected delegates to the Chicago convention, as follows: First district, W. H. Sears, J. G. Howard; Fifth district, Ed Martin, R. E. Collins; Eleventh district, E. B. Ewing, William Lenox; Twelfth district, R. J. Bailey, J. L. Pace; Thirteenth district, O. D. Knox, W. H. Phelps; Fourteenth district, Newton Morrison, A. H. Livingstone; Second district, E. M. Harber, P. J. Carmody; Third district, General Rice, Thomas H. F. France; Ninth district, David Caruth, C. G. Moffitt; Fourth district, Walter Young, Levi Zook; Sixth district, B. F. Reaves, S. H. Bascom; Seventh district, Henry Clark, J. H. Guard.

War Between the Jews and Gentiles.

ST. PETERSBURG, June 24.—Information received from Nizhnee, Novogorod, now confirms the reports of a conflict between the Christians and Jews at that place last Thursday. A rumor was circulated to the effect that a Jew had kidnapped a Christian child and had taken it to the synagogue. A mob attacked the synagogue and many Jews were brutally handled and several killed. Much damage was done to the houses of the Jews. The police and a detachment of Cossack infantry succeeded in restoring order. One hundred and fifty arrests were made.

Notes to the Chicago Convention.

CHICAGO, June 24.—John Forsythe and John H. Calvin, of the reception committee, have arranged that all railroads leading into this city will carry passengers attending the democratic national convention for one fare for the round trip, good from July 5 to the 14th inclusive, with the exception of the North-western and Milwaukee and St. Paul roads, which will charge one and one-fifth and one and one-third fares respectively from non-competitive points.

Another Well Known New York Firm Driven to the Wall by Depression in Stocks.

The National Committee Close Its Labors by Giving Formal Notice to Mr. Logan.

And the Dusky Western Senator Graciously Accepts the Empty Honor From His Party.

Another New York Failure.

NEW YORK, June 24.—Matthew Morgan & Sons, bankers, have suspended. The announcement of the failure caused a depression in the stock market, but it recovered and became steadier. The firm was an old one. They were not members of the stock exchange, but were well-known as merchant bankers.

The failure of Morgan & Sons is attributed to the shrinkage of values. Edward Morgan is expected to return from Europe in a few days. Their liabilities are mainly due on exchange, but they have no liabilities on the stock exchange. The members of the firm are large real estate owners, the New York hotel being one of their holdings, and it is believed the inability to realize on real estate is the immediate cause of their suspension. The house of M. Morgan & Sons has been in business in this city thirty-five years and came originally from New Orleans. They have always been correspondents of several London houses. They are rated at $1,000,000. The suspension is due to the shrinkage of values.

Capital Crimes.

WASHINGTON, June 24.—The house committee of ways and means agreed to report favorably, by a vote of seven to two, the administrative portion of the Hewitt tariff bill, so far as it relates to customs and duties. Kasson, Russell and Blackburn were not present. The division was on party lines, the democrats voting for and the republicans against it.

The senate committee on finance postponed the further consideration of the trade dollar bill until next December.

The cabinet meeting for the consideration of the Fitz John Porter bill was postponed until to-morrow.

SENATOR LOGAN NOTIFIED.

Chairman Henderson and members of the committee charged by the national republican convention with the duty of formally notifying the candidates for president and vice-president of their nomination met at noon to-day and proceeded to the residence of General Logan and were issued into the parlor. The general stood in the middle of the room with Mrs. Logan at his right hand. He was introduced to the members of the committee by the chairman. When this ceremony was performed the committee arranged themselves in a circle to hear the address. Chairman Henderson then read the formal notification of the nomination of Senator Logan as vice-president, to which the general replied at length, accepting the nomination, after which congratulations followed.

A Mysterious Murder.

CINCINNATI, O., June 24.—A mysterious murder for robbery was discovered this morning. The body of a young man was found lying under the Cincinnati and Newport bridge with his head resting on his hand on the mud drum of a steamboat as if asleep. The neck was broken. The theory that he had fallen from the bridge was disposed of by his easy position and by the absence of injuries that a fall of sixty feet would produce. No money or papers were found on his person. The supposition is he was killed, robbed and placed under the bridge to give it the appearance of an accident.

The Jones Family to the Rescue.

PITTSBURGH, June 24.—It is said that B. E. Jones, an iron manufacturer of this city, has been selected for the position of chairman of the republican national committee and that the matter will be settled at the meeting of the committee in New York Thursday. Mr. Jones, when spoken to, admitted that the subject had been broached to him and said he suggested that the possibility of his acceptance of the position would depend upon the fulfillment of certain conditions.

A Sold Golden Star.

Not one man in five hundred thousand has any idea what it costs a monster show like John Robinson's, which exhibits at Fort Wayne July 7, to regild the mammoth chariots, vans, droms, tableaux cars and all the bright and glittering statues of his ten big shows, and people will open their eyes with wonder and astonishment when they learn that the fabulous sum of $26,600 were expended for gold leaf alone to regild the monster show.

Neuralgia's Big Brother

Neuralgia means nerve-pain. There are in the human system nerves of many kinds and great variety of size. Each nerve has its own function, and each its own particular work to do.

In the leg, running downward from the hip, is the great Sciatic Nerve, which, with its branches, carries telegraphic messages from the brain, through the leg, to the extremities of the toes. When the Sciatic Nerve is affected, you have Sciatica.

Sciatica is one of the worst and most gigantic forms of nerve-pain or neuralgia. You may with comparative patience worry through an attack of neuralgia in face or head. That is bad enough, but when Sciatica seizes you, you are helpless.

There are various forms of Sciatica. People speak of Rheumatic Sciatica, Sciatic Rheumatism, Sciatic Neuralgia, and all that sort of thing. Call it what you please, but it is the disorder of the great Sciatic Nerve. There is just one thing that will stop it.

That one thing is ATHLOPHOS. It neutralizes that vicious condition of the blood which causes the mischief. In a word, it conquers the whole family of rheumatic and neuralgic ailments. Working quickly, pleasantly and thoroughly, it leaves no evil effects.

If you cannot get Athlophos of your druggist, we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—two dollars per bottle. No other druggist can give you this medicine, but if it is hard to get, do not be discouraged to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

The democratic state convention meets at Indianapolis to-morrow. Col. I. P. Gray, of Union City, will be the nominee for governor.

The American Prohibition convention at Chicago, nominated S. C. Pomeroy, of Kansas, for president, and J. A. Conant, of Connecticut, for vice president.

The ticket of McDonald and Skoum finds many warm supporters every day. McDonald represents the western democracy as does no other man and the people realize it.

"No one-legged soldiers need apply for relief to a republican convention. It is in favor of building a soldiers' monument, however—perhaps two of them."—Indianapolis Sentinel.

"What a presidential campaign this is for the republican party," says the Boston Transcript (rep.), "with the religious press and the 'better element' requested to get out and stay out."

CONSEQUENT on the death of the Prince of Orange, crown prince of the Netherlands, the cabinet will convene a congress, which in turn will proclaim the princess Wilhelmina successor to the regency, with Queen Emma as regent.

"THINK OF IT!" says the Philadelphia Telegraph (republican). "The great mother commonwealth of New England, that in the halcyon days of republicanism gave 75,000 majority for the party of Lincoln, in the great contest of '84 is found in the list of doubtful states."

The corner stone of a home for single men has been laid in New York City under the auspices of a Presbyterian church. This is a move in the right direction and we hope the example will prove contagious. There is a great number of single men out in this part of the country who sadly need protection:

The New York Herald recapitulates the votes of the New York district delegates to the Chicago convention as follows: The calculation is said to be made from interviews with the seventy-two delegates: Outspoken for Cleveland, 28; known to be for Cleveland, 7; noncommittal, 10; views not known or obtained, 13; for Bayard, 5; for Flower, 4; for Hancock, 1.

"JOSEPH E. McDONALD mounted from a saddler's bench to a seat in the United States senate. His ascent was slow and laborious. He fought against hard conditions, and ultimately triumphed. His public career has been honorable. His reputation is without spot or blemish. He is a man of affairs. He would fill with credit the highest office in the gift of the American people."—Chicago Evening Mail.

The Republican party's love for the man who has lost a limb in the war of the rebellion is the worst kind of hypocrisy, practiced only to catch their votes. This was illustrated in the late republican state convention, when Colonel Dudley, a man who lost a leg in battle, was quietly shelved. Runyan and Hill, two others of the same sort, were served in the same way, and yet a plank in their platform declares in favor of erecting a monument to the memory of the boys who sacrificed their lives for their country. They are ready to show, but when it comes to something of material substance and of benefit they are not there.

EUGENE BUNDY, the republican nominee for lieutenant governor of Indiana, is likely to become better known than he is at present before the campaign closes. He is the man who helped defeat the appropriation bill in the last legislature, he voted against the bill to reform prison labor contracts and he opposed a constitutional convention. Now he essays to stand upon a platform which declares for all these and much more—a platform connected only to catch the support of the people by fulsome promises never intended to be fulfilled or kept by the party pledging them.

The chief of the bureau of statistics, Joseph Nimo, jr., in his report states that the immigration into the United States during the month of May was 82,581. With these were 2,670 aliens who did not intend to remain in the United States. Of this total number of immigrants there arrived from England and Wales 6,736; Ireland, 14,163; Scotland, 980; Austria, 2,424; Bohemia, 1,589; Belgium, 123; Denmark, 1,928; France, 336; Germany, 28,279; Hungary, 1,308; Italy, 3,405; Netherlands, 706; Norway, 4,368; Russia, 1,819; Poland, 1,218; Sweden, 5,456; Switzerland, 1,260; Dominion of Canada, 5,800; from all other countries, 680.

The Indiana republican platform says: "We favor an appropriation by the legislature for the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of the loyal and brave sons of Indiana who gave their lives to save the republic." But we cannot afford, says the platform between the lines, to give place to such men as Dudley and Runyan who left a limb on the battle-field as monuments of their bravery. We rather prefer a man who enlisted before he was fifteen years old, as we will try to make the people believe, when in fact he was only twelve years old when the war broke out and never witnessed a battle. Yes, Dudley and the others must take their medicine and we will build unto them a monument of stone in recompense.

THE REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

A correspondent of the Cincinnati Enquirer speaks of the republican nominees of their state convention in the following pointed style. It still further illustrates the influence crippled soldiers hold upon the party:

Among the candidates for governor was

COL. W. W. DUDLEY,

Who fought his way from the ranks to the command of his regiment, and who, while leading his men in the battle of Gettysburg, lost a leg. Here was an opportunity for the convention to give practical expression of the deep sincerity of the resolutions and they did it by nominating the other soldier, who had not lost a leg, though it is true that he was often in the place where he could have lost one or both. Later on, in the proceedings of the convention, when John N. Runyan, who had lost his whole leg, came before them for the nomination for treasurer, they gave him the same generous evidence of the sincerity of their resolution as they had given Dudley, and with Runyan went Ross Hill, who had lost a leg. Evidently the republicans wanted a running ticket, for every man on it has a sound body so far as is known. But the culmination was reached when

BRUCE CARR

Was placed in nomination as "the gallant young soldier who enlisted before he was fifteen, and served until the end of the war." And in the autobiography which Mr. Carr gave the newspapers he makes the following allusion to his heroic military services:

"Young Carr was one of the youngest soldiers sent by Indiana to fight for the preservation of the Union, being one month less than fifteen years old at the time of his enlistment, and serving until the close of the war."

It need only be said that the muster-rolls of Indiana soldiers do not contain the name of Bruce Carr, and that no such person was ever an enlisted soldier in an Indiana regiment. As he was born in May, 1849, he was within a month of twelve years old when the war broke out. But the soldier element had to be provided for, and as

who was a candidate against Carr, had served a little over a year in the army and navy, it would not seem consistent to beat him with a civilian after passing such resolutions; so they brevetted a soldier out of a man who had rendered distinguished services in political life for the purposes of the convention. The whole thing reminded the spectators of the devotion of the soldiers to the gallant mule, which, worn out with much labor in connection with an army wagon, laid down and died, and the boys mournfully gathered around his decaying corpse and ended a series of complimentary resolutions by "breveting him a horse."

HON. W. H. CALKINS

bore the same relation to the republican convention that Blaine did to the one at Chicago. The vote showed that his strength was in the strong republican districts and counties, among the people who would have to bear the brunt of elosing him.

Cheerful Conversation

is one of the pleasantest amenities of life. Thousands Hastened to their Grave

Relying on testimonials written in vivid glowing language of some miraculous cures made by some largely puffing doctor or patent medicine has hastened thousands to their graves, and the doctor who has made it his business to publish testimonials of cures made by his medicine, although he has not made the cures, although he has not made the cures, although he has not made the cures.

A LORING JOKE.

A prominent physician of Pittsburgh said to a lady who was complaining of her continuing ill health, and of her inability to cure her, jokingly: "Try Hop Bitters!" The lady took it in earnest and used the Bitters, from which she obtained permanent relief. She now writes to the doctor for his sake, but he is not so well pleased with it, as it cost him a good patient.

FEEL OF DOCTORS.

The fee of doctors is an item that very many persons are interested in. We believe the schedule for visits is $3.00, which would tax a man confined to his bed for a year, and in need of a daily visit, over $1,000 a year for medical attendance alone! And one single bottle of Hop Bitters taken in time would save the $1.00 and all the year's sickness.

A LORING JOKE.

"Oh, how I do wish my skin was as clear and soft as yours," said a lady to her friend. "You can easily make it so," answered the friend. "How?" inquired the lady. "By using Hop Bitters that makes pure, rich blood and improves health. It did it for me as you observe."

A sensation in business circles at Wabash was created by the discovery of forgeries amounting to $1,000 committed by a Chicago wholesale merchant, the name of Simon Cook, a dealer in junk at Wabash, being signed to the notes. Cook states that the perpetrator is a wholesale merchant and a near relative, who, becoming cramped financially, resorted to this scheme to raise the wind. It is stated that other notes, aggregating several thousand dollars, have been issued by the same party.

BLOOD VS. WATER.

The Owners of the Feeder Canal Employ One of Pinkerton's Detectives to Guard the Feeder Aqueduct--Bloodshed Imminent.

The water supply question is now at a focus and the friends of the canal and river are arrayed against each other with more ferocity than ever. There is but water enough in the filter basin at the pumping house to supply the city two days, and not enough to see it through a big fire. It is said that threats have been made that if the city needs water they will cut the feeder aqueduct and let plenty of the water they pretend to hate so much down to the pumping house. This inside chat was all right to involve the city in a suit, but the owners of the canal were not napping and engaged one of Pinkerton's detectives to watch their property and defend it as he would his life. It is unnecessary to say the officer will do his duty and compel the people of Fort Wayne to look elsewhere for water. The same detective was here two years ago when there was talk of blowing up the feeder dam. No uneasiness need be felt about the water famine, because if damages result from it Judge O'Rourke tells us the injunction bondsmen will be held financially responsible.

KENSILL TO RESIGN.

The Republican Councilman From the First Ward, Disgusted With the Water Works Question, Threatens to Resign.

John C. Kensill was elected councilman in the first ward between two democratic candidates on an anti-canual platform. After assuming the duties of office Mr. Kensill examined the question and soon found the feeder canal not only a cheap source of water supply, but the best it is possible for the city to ever obtain. For this reason he voted for the purchase of the canal at the last meeting of the council and since then has been pursued and dogged by a few men, who oppose the purchase of the feeder canal. Sunday Mr. Kensill again examined the canal, river and filter basin and was more convinced than ever that the feeder canal was the only water supply. To Morris Zollinger and Street Commissioner Dennis O'Brien Mr. Kensill said he wanted to do right and would resign his position in the council sooner than vote away $100,000 for a river supply that the city can obtain through the canal for $15,000. Mr. Kensill is a courageous fellow who strives to do about right and will not be led astray by blind prejudice.
